Privacy Notice

Collecting personal information about you

Generally, we collect personal information directly from you. We do so when you open a membership, open an account, or perform a transaction with us.

We collect, use, hold and disclose personal information about you so that we can:

- ▶ establish your identity as required by the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Financing Act
- ▶ assess your eligibility for membership
- ▶ process applications for products and services, including loans
- ▶ comply with our legal obligations to assist law enforcement agencies or regulators
- ▶ inform you about products or services that we think may be of interest to you, including those of our business partners and our travel company subsidiary Tertiary Travel Service Pty Limited ABN 28 008 900 981 ('Tertiary Travel').

What happens if you do not provide us with sufficient personal information about you?

If you do not provide us with the personal information we need, we may not be able to provide you with the products or services you are seeking.

To whom do we disclose personal information?

We may exchange information about you with our travel company subsidiary, Tertiary Travel.

The types of people and entities we disclose personal information about you to include:

- ▶ organisations which provide or confirm information to verify your identity
- ▶ contractors for statement production and delivery, card and cheque production
- ▶ brokers, agents and advisers acting for you
- ▶ our auditors, insurers and re-insurers
- ▶ employers or former employers (to verify employment in the case of loan applications)
- ▶ government and law enforcement agencies or regulators and credit reporting bodies and other credit providers

Electronic verification of identity

Subject to your consent, we will disclose personal information about you to a credit reporting body in order to verify your identity. We will disclose your name, address and date of birth. We will ask the credit reporting body to prepare and provide us with an assessment as to whether that personal information matches that held in their credit information files. In preparing this assessment, the credit reporting body may use the personal information of other individuals. The credit reporting body will also submit personal information about you from your identification documents to the Australian Government's Document Verification Service (DVS). The DVS is a national online system that allows personal identifying information about individuals to be compared against government records. Your information will be matched against that held by the relevant government department or agency. You can find out more about the DVS on their website.

If you do not consent to this process, alternative forms of verifying your identity are available on request.

If we are unable to verify your identity with the credit reporting body, you will be provided with a notice to that effect. You may then be asked to provide further evidence of your identity. If we are unable to satisfactorily identify you, we will not be able to admit you to membership or provide you with the services or products you seek.

Our Privacy and Credit Reporting Policy

Our Privacy and Credit Reporting Policy is available on our website. It contains information about:

- ▶ how you can access personal information about you
- ▶ how you can seek correction of that personal information
- ▶ how you may complain if you think we may have breached your privacy and
- ▶ how we will deal with your complaint.

Sending information overseas

Depending on our commercial arrangements, we may disclose personal information about you to business partners with operations overseas or who store personal information overseas (e.g. providers of Lenders' Mortgage Insurance ("LMI").

One of our LMI insurers, QBE Lenders' Mortgage Insurance Limited ABN 70 000 511 071, sends personal information to its related companies and service providers in India and the Philippines. For more information on QBE LMI's privacy policy, visit their website, qbelmi.com.
